A TWENTY YEAR- STOLEN BICYCLE

Ted Robinson has been worried all the week. Last Tuesday he received a letter from the local police. In the letter the police asked him to meet them at the police station. Ted wondered why the police wanted him, but he went to the station yesterday and now he is not worried any more. At the station he was told by a smiling policeman that they found his bicycle. Five days ago, the policeman told him, the bicycle was picked up in a small village four hundred miles away. They are now sending his bicycle to his home by train. Ted was most surprised when he heard the news. He was amused too, because he never expected the bicycle to be found. It was stolen twenty years ago when Ted was a boy of fifteen.

Lions have been called the kings of the animal world. These animals can be found wild in Africa and India. Lions in Africa can go without water for up to one month, so they have no trouble during dry times.

Without question, lions are also one of the most popular animals to see in zoos. Almost every 200 around the world has a few lions.

It is very easy for people to tell male and female lions apart. Lions are the only kind of cat that shows this big difference between males and females. A male lion has 3 mane, a large collar of hair around the lion's face. Females do not have manes. Male lions are also larger than females. A male lion usually weighs about 200 kilograms.

Both male and female lions have very strong mouths, They can break the backs of other animals with one bite. One lion will usually kill between ten and twenty large animals each year for food.

It is unusual for lions to kill people. However, in 1898 two lions killed and ate over one hundred people in Kenyabelore they were shot by a British colonel named P. J. Patterson. This story became the subject of a Hollywood movie called The Ghost and the Darkness.
